Acting Legislative Counsel
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Mr. Miller:

I am writing at the request of my constituent, [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] in Manhattan.

[REDACTED] has discussed with two of my staff members the harassment he is receiving from, he believes, CIA agents. Mr.
[REDACTED]

[REDACTED] He claims that for years he has received threatening telephone calls in the middle of the night and visits by strangers, none of whose names he knows. Some of the callers have threatened to kill him.

[REDACTED] said that the purpose of the harassment is to force him to work for the CIA. He believes that your agency wants him to do political and intelligence work [REDACTED]

I would be most appreciative if you could suggest how my office may best advise [REDACTED] Please direct your correspondence to the attention of Miss Ford in my New York district office.

Sincerely,

Bill Th
